

Geographic Information Systems Specialist

Sauk County, Wisconsin is accepting applications for a full-time GIS Specialist in the Planning and Zoning Department. This position prepares zoning and related land information maps, maintains land records and assists with the development of the Sauk County Geographical Information System. Provide assistance related to other planning processes to assure the balance of economic development while maintaining quality of life through the preservation of unique geographical and geological natural resources.

Interact and assist general public, Realtors, utility companies, abstractors, appraisers, municipal clerks, attorneys seeking geographical information. Compile, analyze, and organize data for use in departmental reports and program administration including, economic, transportation, population, land use, and other demographic data.

Other projects include develop and maintain a GIS database, conduct complex analysis utilizing the GIS and CAD software, design a variety of databases, and analyze spatial data for geographic statistics to incorporate into documents and reports.

NECESSARY REQUIREMENTS: Associate degree in Geography, Cartography or related field. Strong background in programs designed to generate geographical maps and spatial data analysis. Working knowledge of Microsoft Office Access and Excel; ESRI such as ArcView, ArcGIS, ArcInfo, GPS and AutoCAD, Advanced education and/or experience preferred.

HIRING RATE: $43,356 to $47,803

BENEFITS: Health and Life Insurance, Wisconsin State Retirement, Deferred Compensation, Paid Sick Leave, Vacation, Nine (9) Paid Holidays, and more.

Application Deadline: September 5, 2008

Applications and Information available from: Sauk County Personnel Office, 505 Broadway, Baraboo, WI 53913. (608) 355-3269. Additional information may be obtained at <http://www.co.sauk.wi.us> Resumes may be submitted to bclark@co.sauk.wi.us

E.O.E.