

CLUE Update

WCCA Conference

October 23, 2014

Zoning Leadership Program

- Happened yesterday: group of 17 zoning staff attended from 12 counties
- Sent out video presentations prior to program to allow plenty of time for discussion
- Topics discussed
 - General zoning
 - Shoreland zoning
 - Variances and conditional uses
 - Difficult people and situations
 - Floodplain zoning
- Thanks to Terry Ochs, Michelle Staff, Kay Lutze and Terri DP for helping
- Planning to meet again in Mosinee on the Wednesday before the spring WCCA conference – topics TBD by participants

Upcoming workshops

- BOA – Early 2015: Lynn
 - Clark
 - Bayfield
 - Winnebago
 - Walworth
 - Polk

- Plan commission: Becky Roberts
 - Balsam Lake, November 13 - Updating Your Comprehensive Plan

Sand Mining in Wisconsin

Anna Haines
Professor and Director
Center for Land Use Education

State Bar of Wisconsin
Environmental Law Section's
Annual Environmental Law
Seminar
September 17, 2014

Wetlands Governance

EPA grant

Inventory and Analysis of Count Plans, Zoning Ordinances, and
Land/Subdivision
Regulations

Anna Haines

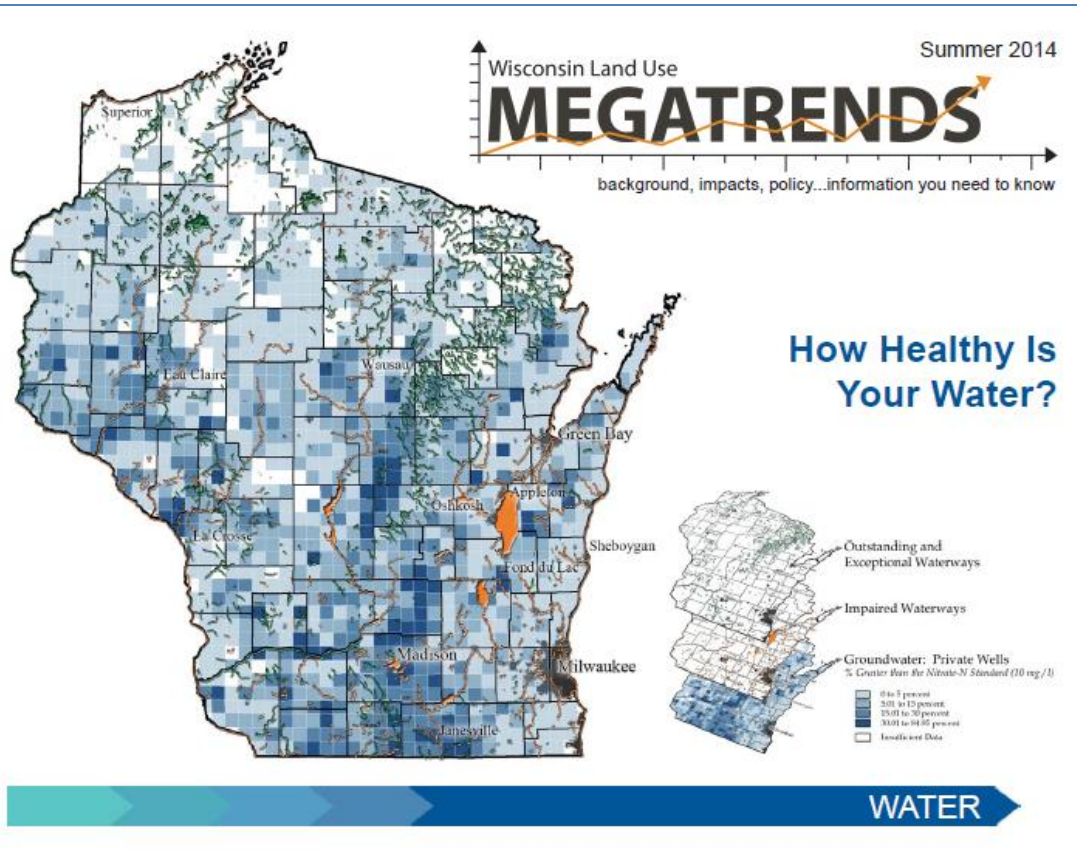

Matt Zangl

Sustainable Energy

- Hired new professor, Shiba Kar, this summer
 - From Washington State Extension
- Has intern working with Portage County on sustainable energy strategies – energy efficiency and renewable energy
- Teaching sustainability and energy policy courses at UWSP

WI Land Use Megatrends

Water – Summer 2014

- 16 pages including lots of maps
- Created with other UWEX centers
- History in WI
- Water resources
- Water use
- Public & environmental health
- Economics
- Water policies

Benefits of leaving trees in the lake

Coming out in Spring 2015

- Short adult publication
- Kids' book

