

WCCA Zoning Leadership 2019

Begins: Thursday, February 28 at 10am
 Ends: Friday, March 1 at 2pm
 Location: Central Wisconsin Environmental Station
 (CWES), 10186 County Rd MM, Amherst Junction, WI

Agenda

Thursday, February 28		Presenters
10-11:00 am	Introductions What zoning staff need to know about working with people	Kay Lutze, DNR and CeCe Tesky, Rusk Co and WCCA
11:00-noon	History of zoning and planning	Eric Olson or CLUE
Noon – 12:45 pm	Lunch
12:45 – 2:15pm	Managing conflict and personal safety on the job, including a primer on verbal defense	Kay Lutze
2:15-3:15pm	Enforcement discretion. Properly writing a denial letter and a violation letter; content and tone, remember you may be going to court	Grant Thomas, Door County Corporation Counsel
3:15-3:30 pm	Break
3:30 – 4:30pm	Shoreland Zoning History and basics 101	Kay Lutze and Lynn Markham, UWEX
5:00pm	Dinner
6:00 to 8:30 p.m. in dining room	True Colors® By identifying your personality temperament and the personalities of others, True Colors provides insights into different motivations, actions, and communication approaches. By understanding each individual’s personality type, teams can improve communication.	Jackie Carattini, UWEX Wood County
8:30 to ?	Networking and free time
Friday, March 1
8am	Breakfast
8:45-10:45am	Privately Owned Wastewater Treatment Systems	CeCe Tesky
10:45-11:00am	Break
11:00am-noon	Floodplain zoning 101	Michelle Staff, DNR
Noon – 12:45pm	Lunch
12:45-1:30pm	Q&A session with WCCA mentors
1:30-2:00p.m.	Continue as a group? Words of wisdom. Other leadership programs: lake leaders, county leadership programs Wrap-up.
	Safe travels home. We hope you enjoyed these sessions, learned a lot, and find something to share with your colleagues and team members at home.	